Invitation Of membership

Upon acceptance of an application, and if there is a vacancy in the class of membership applied for, the board of directors shall invite the applicant to assume membership in the corporation. An invitee must accept the invitation to join in writing, either through post or email, within (15) days of the date of the invitation, and must pay dues prorated through that date upon acceptance. If a reply is not received within (15) day period, the corporation shall automatically consider the invitation rejected. If the invitation is accepted the board of directors shall invite the invitee to the next regular meeting of the corporation.

Parading Members

Parading members shall consist of those members who are accepted for the parading membership, who timely pay dues set by the board of directors at the annual meeting of the board of directors, who actively attend meetings and functions of the corporation. Parading members shall have one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the membership. Parading members shall be entitled to any office of this corporation, shall costume at the annual Ball of the corporation, and shall have the privilege of participation in all social, civic and beneficial affairs of the corporation.

Parading members' dues are $400 per year.

Non-Parading Member

Non-parading members shall consist of those members who accepted non-parading membership, who timely pay dues set by the board of directors at the annual meeting of the board of directors, who actively attend meetings and functions of the corporation. Non-Parading members shall have the privileges of parading members, except Parading at the annual ball of the corporation. However, Non-parading members are allowed to costume to ball theme if desired. Non-Parading members shall have one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the membership. Non- Parading members may become Parading members only upon written request at the annual meeting of the membership. A non- Parading member may become a parading member, if a vacancy occurs in the parading membership, upon written request, in the order of said requests, at any regular meeting of membership, in accordance with the by-law of the corporation.

Non-Parading members' dues are $250 per year
